Sheridan, in which he confirms previous dispatches about Indian outrages. General Sheridan says the outrages are too horrible to detail. Gen. Sherman orders Gen. Sheridan to continue the pursuit and drive the savages from that section of the country, and when captured to give them summary punishment. The Secretary of War communicated the intelligence to the President who acquiesced in the stringent measures with which the Secretary of War and Gen. Sherman were taking in the matter.

NEW YORK CITY.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 22, 1868.

ARREST OF COUNCILMEN.

One of the most serio-comical affairs ever perpetrated in this city was the arrest today of the whole Board of Common Councilmen for contempt of Judge Barnard of the Supreme Court in not obeying an injunction of said Court. Writs for their arrest had been in the hands of the Sheriff for several days, but they could not be found. By preconcerted arrangement, the Councilmen met quietly at their rooms in the City Hall to-day, and proceeded to transact business. They had just passed a resolution admitting to seats the five members to whom they have heretofore denied that right, and by that denial bringing themselves into contempt of the order of Judge Bernard, when the Deputies of the Sheriff appeared in their midst and declared them all under arrest. A motion to adjourn was carried. They formed in line and, headed by the Sheriff and his Deputies, marched to the Supreme Court. The Court had, however, adjourned, when the Sheriff put them each under parole oath to appear next Tuesday, and they dispersed. The whole affair is regarded here as a farce.

ADDRESS TO SOLDIERS AND CITIZENS.

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19, 1868.

The Committee have thought proper to lay before their constituents a brief but full statement of the reasons which should induce all loyal American citizens, at the coming Presidential election, to vote for Grant and Colfax: and, in doing so, they will proceed at once to a discussion of the grave questions to be settled by the decision of the American people, in November next.

It is no less a question than whether a rebellion, successfully ended, shall be followed by a permanent peace or by a new rebellion, to be headed by the Democratic nominee, with the advice and assistance of his co-nominee, General Blair.

These reasons will be published from day to day by the Committee, in a series of addresses.

ADDRESS NO. 1.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE WAR?

Mr. Rhett, of South Carolina, a leading rebel, said after the ordinance of secession was passed by the convention of that State: "The secession of South Carolina is not an event of a day. It is not anything produced by Mr. Lincoln's election, or by the non-execution of the fugitive law. It has been a matter which has been gathering head for thirty years."

General Andrew Jackson, our patriotic President, in 1833, said of the Nullifiers and Secessionists of his day: The tariff was only the pretext and disunion and A SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY THE REAL OBJECT. The next pretext will be the negro or slavery question.

A prophecy fulfilled by Mr. Calhoun and his followers to the very letter.

By resolve of the Cincinnati Convention in 1856 the Democratic National Convention of 1860 assembled at Charleston on the 23d of April, and after a stormy session, and the secession of eleven slave States, adjourned to meet at Baltimore on the 18th of June. The seceders adjourned to meet at Richmond on the 11th of June. From the Convention at Baltimore, other secessions took place, and Stephen A. Douglas was nominated by the adhering members, and John C. Breckinridge by the seceders, as their respective candidates for President of the United States, in which last nomination the Richmond seceders acquiesced.

Mr. Bell was nominated by a body styled the Union Constitutional Convention, which met at Baltimore on the 9th of May; and Mr. Lincoln was nominated by the Republican National Convention, which met at Chicago on the 16th of May, 1860.

There were, therefore, four Presidential candidates in the field, two of them belonging to the Democratic party, the pro-slavery wing of which would never coalesce with the supporters of Judge Douglas.

To the Democrats of the slave States it therefore became clear that Mr. Lincoln must be elected in November, and Mr. Keitt, speaking for South Carolina, said: "In my judgment, if the Black Republican party succeed in the coming election the Governor should immediately assemble the Legislature, and that body should provide for a State Convention, which should protect the State from the dishonor of submission to Black Republican rule."

The same sentiment was openly avowed by the leading Democrats in every slave State, and the Democratic party was sedulously prepared for secession, and a forcible dissolution of the Union.

On Tuesday, the 6th of November, the returns showed that Mr. Lincoln was the next President of the United States, Gov. Gist having expressed in his message to the Legislature of South Carolina, on that day, the opinion that in that event the only alternative left is the "secession of South Carolina from the Federal Union."

On the 7th (the next day) the United States officials resigned at Charleston, and on the 10th the U. S. Senators, Hammond and Chestnut, resigned their seats in the Senate. On the 17th December the ordinance of secession was unanimously adopted, and on the 31st commissioners were appointed to proceed to Washington to treat for the possession of Government property within the limits of South Carolina. On the 24th their representatives in Congress withdrew, and on the 3d January, 1861, the South Carolina commissioners left Washington. On the 1st February seven States had passed ordinances of secession, and withdrawn from the Union.

On the 4th of February the Democratic Congress met at Montgomery, and its president, Howell Cobb, announced that secession "is now a fixed and irrevocable fact, and the separation is perfect, complete, and perpetual." On the 8th the constitution of the provisional government was adopted, and on the 18th Jefferson Davis was inaugurated as President.

On the 11th of March, 1861, the permanent slave constitution of the Confederate States was signed, and Jefferson Davis and Alexander H. Stephens became the rebel President and Vice President of the Southern Confederacy whose corner-stone was negro slavery.

During this whole period, up to the 4th of March, 1861, Mr. Buchanan, a Democrat, was President, with a Cabinet of whom, originally, only two were Union men.

The Democratic Secretary of the Treasury having injured, to the utmost of his power, the finances and credit of the nation, stole away on the tenth of December and became the President of the provisional rebel Congress. On the 20th the Democratic Secretary of War, who, at the instance of Jefferson Davis, filled the Southern arsenals with United States arms for rebel use, resigned and was followed on the 8th of January, 1861, by the Democratic Secretary of the Interior, whose department had been robbed by a subordinate, while the Democratic Secretary of the Navy, who must have known the intention of his colleagues, had distributed our naval force on distant stations, from which it would take months to bring them home.

The Democratic Attorney General advised the President that he had no power to coerce a State, in which opinion the Democratic Executive coincided, and of course took no measures to prevent the robbery of arsenals and mints, the seizure of public vessels, and the capture of forts, with the firing on ships of the United States conveying provisions to United States troops in United States forts.

The President was an aged man, traitorously deserted by those men whom he had rewarded by the highest offices in his gift, and without a single honest adviser of his original Cabinet, General Cass having resigned as Secretary of State.

Southern emissaries swarmed at Washington, postponing, by every device, all measures of the Government, tending to counteract the active and constant preparations for war by the rebel slave States. Mr. Keitt, in November, 1860, said: "John Hickman said defiantly, that if we went out of the Union, eighteen millions of Union men would bring us back. Let me tell you there are a million Democrats in the North, and when the Black Republicans attempt to march upon the South, they will be found a wall of fire to the front." [Cries of "that's so," and applause.] And Mr. Durgan said: "It is not true in point of fact, that all the Northern people are hostile to the rights of the South. We have a Spartan band in every Northern State;" and when we find an ex-President in a private confidential letter to the man who the next year was the rebel President, using the following language, it is not to be wondered at, that the Southern rebels relied on the active and efficient aid of Northern Democrats:

"I do not believe," writes ex-President Pierce from New York to Jefferson Davis at Washington, "that our friends in the South have any just idea of the state of feeling, hurrying at this moment to the pitch of intense exasperation, between those who respect their political obligations and those who have apparently no propelling power but that which fanatical passion on the subject of domestic slavery imparts. Without discussing the question of right, of abstract power to secede, I have never believed that actual disruption of the Union can occur without blood; and if, through the madness of abolitionism, that dire calamity must come, it will not be along Mason and Dixon's line merely—*it will be within our own borders, in our own streets, between the two classes of citizens to whom I have referred

THE WET SHROUD.

"Ach, Sohn! was halt dich zuruck?"
"Siehe, Mutter, das sind de Thranen."
MUTTERTHRANEN.

They gave her back again:
They never asked to see her face;
But gazed upon her vacant place,
Moaning, like those in pain.

There was a brief, hot thirst;
A throbbing of the heart for dreams
Which never more save in sweet dreams
From that lost fount should burst.

There was a frightful cry,
As if the whole great earth were dead;
Yet was one arrow only sped,
One, only, called to die.

Then all grew calm as sleep;
And they in household ways once more
Did go; the anguish hair was o'er,
For they had learned to weep.

They stood about her bed,
And whispered low beneath their cloud;
For she might hear them speaking loud—
She was so near, they said.

Softly, her pillows pressing,
With reverend brows they mutely lay;
They scarcely missed the risen clay
In her pure soul's caressing.

Last, from their eyes were driven
Those heart drops, lest so spoke their fears—
Her robes, all heavy with their tears,
Might clog her flight to Heaven!

There is an excellent course for this sort of locomotion on the streets around the Allegheny commons and any young gentlemen who desires local renown and reputation as "something particularly swell" can attain the pinnacle of his ambition by purchasing and using here, one of these two-wheeled, curious perambulaters.

—The French are in the habit of imparting an artificial flavor and fragrance to apples and pears by the following process: The fruit is plucked before being quite ripe, and is pricked all over with a fine needle; after which it is placed in a vessel with essence of every desirable kind. The exhalations of the latter are absorbed in a few seconds by the fruit, and the operation is repeated several times, until the fruit is ripe, when it will be found to have acquired the desired taste.

—Some one explains how the "Grecian bend" is produced: A belt is fastened about the waist, under the skirts. From this belt, down either side the hips, two straps, furnished with buckles, descend and are attached to strong bands made fast around the lower thighs. As the buckles of the straps are tightened, the hips are drawn up and held in position.

—On account of the extreme heat and drought in the province of Frise, Holland, rain water is sold for sixty centimes a pail, and well water for thirty centimes. In the Island of Voorne, Holland, the inhabitants are almost without water, the air being filled with all kinds of insects, many of which have never before been seen. Numerous cases of sunstroke have taken place among the farmers, and in consequence of the intense heat the harvesting is done during the night.

—A little display of vivid imagination, a soaring away on the winged back of Pegasus, is not always unpleasant in a newspaper article, and figurative language has its admirers in all classes of society. Of all the newspapers published outside of New York and Chicago, the Louisville Journal is certainly the most flowery; always famous, in this line it now seeks to surpass even itsself and so calls Sherman, Thomas and Meade "satraps," and all other soldiers "slaves of satraps." while those who vote for Grant are "all swindlers, pimps, detectives, adventurers, bigots and blackguards," but even such fervid imagination and rich word-painting may be unappreciated, as especially great works often are.

A LADY riding in a car on the New York Central Railroad was disturbed in her reading by the conversation of two gentlemen occupying the seat before her. One of them seemed to be a student of some college on his way home for a vacation. He used much profane language, greatly to the annoyance of the lady. She thought she would rebuke him, and, on begging pardon for interrupting them, asked the young student if he had studied the languages. "Yes, madam, I have mastered the languages quite well." "Do you read and speak Hebrew?" "Quite fluently." "Will you be so kind as to do me a small favor?" "With great pleasure. I am at your service." "Will you be so kind as to do your swearing in Hebrew?"

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.
700 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
Are now finished and in operation. 160 miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this
GREAT NATIONAL WORK,
At the earliest possible day, will be done.
The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:
I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.
II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.
III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.
IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, car shops, locomotives, cars, &c.
V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.
VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. Thes earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three time their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS
The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are fo $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. The bear annual interest, payable on the first days o January and July, at the Company's Office, in th City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. i gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold they pay a liberal income on their cost.
The Company believe that these Bonds, at th present rate, are the cheapest in the market, an reserve the right to advance the price at any time
Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Woo and Fourth Streets;
HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Woo and Third Streets;
S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;

Remittances should be made in drafts or othe funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be se free of charge by return express. Parties sub scribing through local agents, will look to them fo their safe delivery.
A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has ju been published by the Company, giving fuller in formation than is possible in an advertisement, re specting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Mean for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, whic will be sent free on application at the Company offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 141½.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 22, 1868.

MONEY AND GOLD.

The market closed very easy at from 3 to 5per cent. for call loans,and 7 for prime discounts. The general trade of the city is improving, and fall business will soonopen in earnest, which will increase the legitimate demand in the immediate future, which, in connection with continued shipments of currency to the West, must soon have a hardening tendency on rates of interest. Bank statements are very unfavorable, and show a heavy loss in deposits and legal tenders, the result of an increased demand for money from the interior to move crops. The loss in specie is owing chiefly to the demand for customs, and the decrease in loans show a gradual contraction on the part of banks. This contraction in loans and decrease in deposits and Legal Tenders is likely to continue until October, when the quarterly bank statement is made up. Loans, $275,245,781, decrease $2,562,837; specie, $19,768,671. decrease $3,185,160; circulation, $34,137,627, decrease $23,540; deposits, $126,435,405, decrease $7,125,682; Legal Tenders, $69,757,645, decrease $3,177,836.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

The foreign exchange market was quiet and firm, and some leading bankers are asking 109½, but the market can't be quoted over 109 for prime sterling and 109¼ for bond sterling. Gold firmer at close, owing to loss of specie by banks, and advanced to 141¼. Loans were made at 33½; 2 per cent for carrying and flat for borrowing.

GOVERNMENTS.

Governments dull and heavy at the close and round lots could not be sold at quotations. Bonds are beginning to return from Europe as usual in the latter part of the year, and already $1,000,000 of 1862s have been ordered back which had been sold here at 113 to 113¼; seller 30. The investment demand is very little and orders from the interior are chiefly to sell. Coupons of 1881, 113⅝@113¾; do. 1862, 113¼@113⅜; do. '64, 108⅜@109; do. '65, 111⅛@111⅜; do. new, 107⅝@107⅞; do. RAILWAY MATTERS.

Railway market dull, except Erie, which has been active and variable; opened at 46¼, advanced to 50¾, fell to 47½, and closed at 48½@48¼; large short interest was covered to-day. New York Central heavy, and sold as low as 123¼, and rallied to 124¼. The general list is dull and without much change. The sharp turn in Erie is said to nave been engineered by two prominent operators, who took advantage of the stock being oversold, and rightened speculative sellers into covering. Express shares opened higher, with an active borrowing demand, but closed lower. Miscellaneous shares dull.

RIVER NEWS.

—Capt. Haigh, one of the principal owners of the Great Republic was in Cincinnati on Thursday.

—Capt. Lew Vandergrift of the Charmer left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday evening, on business connected with the Argosy.

—The R. C. Gray has thrown up her St. Louis trip at Cincinnati, and will probably load in turn for New Orleans after the Maggie Hays.

—The hulls and machinery of the boats recently burned at Cincinnati, were sold at Austion on Thursday: The wreck of the Ezra Porter was sold to C. T. Dumont for $850; the Delaware to Wolf & McDonald for $570; the Potomac to C. T. Dumont for $650; and the Pine Grove to C. T. Dumont for $525.

—The Mary Erwin reports the Wm. Butler out of the channel and hard aground at Buffington, nearly in the same place where the Edinburg stuck for three weeks. The Erwin also reports the Camelia hard aground on Carpenter's Bar. There was no prospect of either of these boats getting off soon, unless a rise came.

—The Board of Inspectors have public the result of their investigation in regard to the collision between the Leonora No. 2 and Lady Grace, which occured on the 18th of June last, near Madison, Indiania. The Local Inspectors report that, from the testimony adduced, they find the unskilfullness of Thomas M. Claxon, pilot of the Lady Grace, to have been the cause of the collision, "and they suspend his license for a period of sixty days."

—The officers of the Mary Erwin report the following boats laid up at the points designated, waiting for a rise: Hercules and V. F. Wilson, Coal Port; Eagle, Antiquity, Samson, Letard; Simson Horner, Sand Creek; Tom Rees, Ravenswood; and the Sam. Roberts, Niagara, Coal City, Baltic, Coal Hill, Lake Erie, Leonard, Whale, Coal, Valley, Stella, Leader, Rigley, Little Alps, Tigress, Hornet, Lioness, J. S. Neal, James Blackmore, Greenback.

—We clip the following items from the St. Louis Democrat, of Friday: Captain Massey yesterday purchased one-fourth of the steamer Antelope at the rate of $24,000, and will assume command. The Itasca is at the bank up the river awaiting repairs to her machinery. She will probably be down to-morrow. Capt. Henry Switzer has bought, for the purpose of running her in Red river, the staunch, complete and new steamer Sully Mr. W. B. Russell, of this city, has sold his one-fourth interest in the George D. Palmer to Captain Abe Hutchinson for $3,000. Captain Ab. Shaw, formerly of the Mepham, Minnie, &c., arrived yesterday from Wheeling. His right hand bower A. C. McConnell, is now in Pittsburgh with his family.

—A St. Louis correspondent writes to the Cincinnati Commercial, as follows: There is nothing new here; times quite dull, and the boats are having a great deal of fun at somebody's expense—I suppose you will find out whose, before long. Competition is all the go. Honorable competition, you know, is necessary to the health and prosperity of the country, and is a benefit to all; but the competition going on at this time is not one that is beneficial to the country. It is one that is ruinous to all. And why so? you would ask. Because the competition is of a nature that is ruining the large interest, which has added so much to the commercial interest of the country—the steamboat interest—an interest that we can not do without; one that should be fostered by all business men in the country, but one that is so universally condemned by the the unthinking. The fight here is, who can lose the most money, or, in other words, "the longest pole knocks the persimmons;" and many a persimmon will fall before the fight is over. It is a sad state of affairs, but such is the fact. Would the steamboatmen work half as hard for one another as they do to ruin one another, they would be a well-to-live set of men, and be at least looked on as men of common sense.

VALLANDIGHAM is repudiated by the honest, Union-loving Democracy of his district. Gen. VANDEVEER and hundreds of others have promptly repudiated the traitor, and announce their intention to "vote as they shot"—against rebels in every guise, now and hereafter for all time to come.

A MONSTER MASS MEETING of the "Boys in Blue" is designed to be held, probably at Philadelphia, about the 1st of October. It is said to be the intention "to make this demonstration the largest and grandest assemblage of veterans since the famous review in Washington at the close of the war."

THE Ebensburg Alleghenian, after a brief suspension, has resumed publication and comes to us as bright and smiling as ever. J. TODD HUTCHINSON, its former editor, and ED. JAMES, have assumed the editorial duties, and they will undoubtedly sustain the high reputation the Alleghenian has ever enjoyed. We wish the paper long life and prosperity.

ISRAELITES, who are entreated by the Democracy to vote against General GRANT, upon the false charge against him of the proscription of their race, will do well to remember that the Tennessee Democracy killed one of their brethren, Mr. BIERFIELD, at Franklin, the other day because he was a Union man, and that a leading Democratic paper at Nashville justifies his murder on Scriptural grounds.

VERY FEW of the stump-orators battling for the success of the Democratic party care to enter into any argument on what they style in general terms the "bond question." They skim the surface, cover difficult problems with high sounding phrases and cleverly rounded periods, but never once reach the heart of the subject. The instincts of men are honest, and these orators fear to go into the truth of the questions which enter the canvass.

THE cattle-disease has broken out, with fatal virulence, in the vicinity of Cincinnati, one dairy-man having lost his entire stock of cows, and its early development among the native stock at many Eastern points is anticipated. The farmers of Illinois, who have been sufferers in this way, intend to proceed against the railway companies for the violation of an express law of that State, which prohibits the transportation of such cattle. They have also taken measures to hold the importers of the Texas cattle responsible, and have succeeded already in recovering $5,000 from one dealer at Kankakee.

VERMONT holds her election on September 1st, one week from to-morrow. State officers and Congressmen are to be chosen. Gov. PAGE, who is to be re-elected, had 20,184 majority last year. It will swell next week to the even twenty-five thousand. California holds her Congressional election on the 8th, one week later; of the three present members, but one is a Republican, but there is reason to hope for the election of two this year. Three weeks from to-day, September 14th, Maine chooses State officers and Congressmen. Gov. CHAMBERLAIN'S majority of 11,614 will not be lessened, and the Republicans rely on electing all the five members of Congress.

THE CITY TREASURY.

The "card" of Mr. ALLINDER in a city journal of yesterday, announcing himself as still an independent candidate for the Treasurership, excited only a feeling of disgust among the honest, honorable and intelligent Republicans of the city, and none were more free in giving utterance to that feeling than were citizens who had supported him at the primary meetings.

On the 10th of August, the City Executive Committee adopted the annexed resolution:

WHEREAS, The last municipal election has demonstrated that unity in action is necessary, and that all persons submitting their names to the Republican party for office should pledge themselves to support the nominees; therefore,

Resolved, That the candidates for the Republican nominations for city offices are hereby requested to present in writing to the Secretary of the City Executive Committee on or before Wednesday, August 12th, 1868, a notification of their will ngness to abide the decision and support the nominees of the Republican primary elections, to be held Saturday, August 15th, 1868. The Secretary of the Committee to make public on Thursday, August 13th, through the Republican papers of the city, the names of the persons who have notified him of their candidacy, and the election boards of the various wards are hereby instructed and authorized to count the votes cast for such candidates only as shall have compiled with the resolution.

As requested by the above resolution, each of the gentlemen proposed as candidates before the primary meetings, gave the Secretary written "notifications," pledging the writers to a faithful support of the nominations. The communication from Mr. ALLINDER was perhaps the most frank and decisive of any, and was as follows:

CITY TREASURER'S OFFICE, PITTSBURGH, August 11, 1868.

GEN. A. L. PEARSON, Secretary of the Republican Executive Committee:

Dear Sir: As a candidate for nomination before the Republican voters of the city of Pittsburgh for the office of City Treasurer, in accordance with a resolution of said Committee, passed on the evening of the 10th instant, I respond that, having full faith in the honesty and integrity of the people, I shall with pleasure abide by their decision, to be given at the ballot-box on the 15th of the present month, and shall support the nominees which they place upon the Republican ticket.

Yours, very respectfully,
S. ALLINDER.

At the ensuing Saturday's election, Mr. ALLINDER was defeated, receiving but 1,759 votes to 2,269 for COCHRAN and 955 for TOMLINSON, or but a trifle over one-third of the whole poll. After waiting one week, he repudiates his pledged word of honor and, with vague, loose, indefinite accusations against the fairness of the poll, again enters the field.

Mr. ALLINDER has a right to be a candidate for any office, at any time, under any circumstances, in the face of any pledges, in disregard of any honorable engagements, in violation of any explicit agreements and in contempt for any requirement of truth—if he wishes. Whether Republican voters will support such a man, is quite another thing. His veracity, his honor, his sense of fair dealing between man and man, are his own, and we shall not impugn them. The style in which he himself chooses to parade these qualities will enable the public to form a very clear and unanimous opinion in the premises without any suggestions from us. When we find a man resolute to commit a political harikari, we hav'nt the remotest wish to interfere with him, for it is usually the best disposal he can make of himself; it disposes of him finally and as a general thing to the satisfaction of the public.

But, when Mr. ALLINDER attempts to excuse his breach of honorable faith, by the assertion that he "was openly and shamefully defrauded in many of the old city wards," he says what he has no right to say, because it is not true in fact, and we call upon him to prove his assertion. He cannot bring such charges against the Republicans of this city without supporting them with proof, or being himself branded as he should be. We believe that no primary election more honest and fair was ever held than that which declined the continuance of Mr. ALLINDER'S official services, and we shall continue to think so, until he proves his allegations to be well founded. His "buncombe" talk about a "ring" is of course only a bid for Democratic support. If a "ring" ever existed here, a good many Republicans were active in flattening it last year, and to make sure work of this job, the entire Republican party of the city finished it up handsomely this year, by abolishing the delegate system and taking into their own hands the duty of selecting a ticket. And this is the ring of 5,600 Republicans which the defeated candidate don't like.

THE SLAVES TO BE PAID FOR.

The Quid Nunc, a Democratic journal printed at Clarksville, West Virginia, in its issue for August 14th, takes decided ground in favor of enforcing payment from the Government for the emancipated slaves. It says:

The most sanguine and fanatical adherent of the present government cannot point us to any legal authority for the emancipation of slavery, and until there is such authority, we shall be compelled to regard the negroes as slaves. * * * * The people of the North may understand this at once, and prepare for it. * * * We intend to run this idea until we make something of it, or else run it into the ground and quit. * * * "Let us have peace" and money for the negroes.

Nothing is more certain than that the return of the SEYMOUR and BLAIR Democracy to power would be followed by one of two things: either the re-enslavement of the freedmen, or the payment of thousands of millions of dollars from the Treasury to their former owners. The Democratic platform at New York, and Democratic journals generally, keep mum on this question for the present, but, here and there, journals like the one quoted above, are indiscreet enough to "speak out in meeting." Let it be remembered, therefore, that payment for the slaves is already demanded by the Southern Democracy, and that, unless they can restore their old rebellious State governments and reduce the colored men to bondage again, or get a fair price for them from the National Treasury, BLAIR'S new rebellion is to be forthwith inaugurated, and additional thousands of millions are to be expended, either in maintaining the Union, or in satisfying this infamous demand. Let all who love their country unite now in crushing this treasonable party forever!

DID the wages of the laboring classes proportionately advance with the increased premium on gold when it was forced up by inflation to $2,80? Did not the commodities of life rise in price with gold, and even approach unwarrantably high figures at the same time? Workingmen, consider these questions, and then discover if you can, how you are to be benefitted by another grand issue of greenbacks, as proposed by the Democratic party.

TURN OUT TO-NIGHT!

Arrangements have been made to welcome CARL SCHURZ, the orator, scholar and patriot, who will arrive in the city to-night, in such a manner as will make him feel that his steady and consistent efforts in the cause of Liberty and Truth are heartily acknowledged by the loyal masses of Allegheny county. Let all turn out to-night and swell the procession in honor of the great exponent of the intelligent German element of the country. The Grant and Tanner Clubs will form into line at Wilkins Hall, Fourth street, and every Republican voter is cordially invited to take a place in the ranks. The Germans will form at City Hall.

Remember, as you honor SCHURZ, you honor the great masses of your German fellow-citizens, as well as the undying principles he so fearlessly represents and interprets.

THE FIRST DEMOCRATIC REBELLION.

When South Carolina seceded, December 20, 1860, the next day a leading journal of the Northern Democracy, the Cincinnati Enquirer, in an article announcing the secession, and further discussing "the policy of coercion," said:

A general civil war between ten millions of American citizens in the South and twenty millions in the North, would be the result. No! not twenty millions, for nearly half of our population would decline to countenance or have anything to do with the fratricidal strife. No, coercion would induce the Northern Democrats and Conservatives to shoulder their muskets, and under Abolition leaders, march to the South to desolate its fields and murder their brothers. This may as well be understood now as any other time.

The same journal speaking of the Northern Democracy, the next day, said, in reference to the withdrawal by Major ANDERSON of the soldiers from Fort Moultrie, thus:

If the retaining of those forts would render a collision inevitable between the Federal and State forces, we would say, abandon them without a struggle.

The same journal, in its issue for December 28, 1860, advocated the organization of a Northwestern Confederacy in this style:

There is another topic growing out of a separation of our beloved Union, which it may be premature to reflect upon, but the times give little to hope, but that ere long the Great West will be called to decide where she will go; whether she will ally herself to a kindred people whose every interests, social and pecuniary, are common, or whether she will, on a question concerning the negro, with which, as States, we have nothing to do, will join herself with the Northeast, a people with whom we have very little sympathy, and whose interests are antagonistic.

These extracts fairly illustrate the temper with which the Northern Democracy then sympathized with and encouraged that rebellion. The same spirit governs them now. It is the essence of their platform and the great aim of their candidates.

THE TRUE DOCTRINE OF THE DEMOCRACY.

The Lagrange (Texas,) New Era of the 13th ult., supporting the nominations of SEYMOUR and BLAIR, frankly and pointedly sets forth the real Democratic doctrine thus:

These thirteen independent States created the Constitution. In consequence of an erroneous idea about the Union, they have labored under the equally foolish one that the Union was absolutely designed to be perpetual. This was an error. * * * Like the marriage compact, when plighted faith is violated and honor impeached it may it must be broken. The laws of man—the laws of God, demand that it shall be broken. Such a Union will be broken unless held together by brute force; by the bloody sword of the parricide in shame, infamy, degradation and dishonor; by monsters hateful to God and man.

We like this outspoken candor. It reveals exactly what the Democratic platform means. They don't trouble themselves in the South about bonds and taxation, for they intend to shift their share of the public burthens upon the Northern Democracy by cutting loose from the Union altogether.

A STATEMENT that the Public Debt has been increased "from March 31st, '65 to August 1st, '61 one hundred and fifty millions of dollars," is going the rounds of the Democratic press, and to give it the aspect of plausibility, they quote pretended statements from Secretary MCCULLOCH, reporting the debt, March 1st, '65 at $2,366,955,077 44. This is a clear fabrication; the Secretary never reported such figures. He reported July 1st, '65, the total of the debt as $2,681,734,717 38, and in October 1st, 65, the total was $2,808,549,437 55, the increase representing the immense sum required in paying off the soldiers and other war claims and disbanding the volunteer army. From that point—the highest attained by the debt—it has been since steadily diminished. Come, gentlemen, do have some regard for the truth, at least so far as to avoid such palpable falsehoods as the one herein exposed.

HERE is another gem of Southern Democracy, which sparkled from the lips of Gen. C. A. Battle, at a Seymour and Blair ratification meeting in Mobile on the 11th! See how candidly he accepts Blair's ideas, and observe the reasons he gives for it:

"Comrades, brothers, year after year you bore the Confederate flag through fire and tempest, and upon more than two hundred battle fields covered it with victory. * * I am here to-night to ask you to come up to the altar of the South, and let us again pledge to her our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor. The Democratic party offers the most honorable terms. It endorses principles for which you battled. Not only does it declare in favor of that constitution so dear to you, but it most solemnly declares that all these acts of reconstruction, so totally destructive of your rights, and so repugnant to every honorable feeling, are unconstitutional, null and void. Seymour and Blair are the champions of the constitutional liberty, for which you braved a hundred battle fields. I ask you to bring into the canvass the high qualities of courage and fortitude that you have so signalized in your past career. Press to the front; carry your colors deep into the enemy's lines. Come war or pestilence, come death in all its terrible array, rather than suffer the slightest stain of dishonor."

ON THE 28th of June, 1867, the Pittsburgh Post said:

What better thing can we do in case of General Grant's nomination by the Republican party than to vote for him for the Presidency? Our aim should be to strengthen as much as possible independent of party and to elect him as the President of the people. If unanimously, so much the better.

"We solemnly believe that if the people generally of the United States can come together with real unanimity on General Grant, in regard to the Presidency it will be the happiest thing for our country that could possibly occur. The future good effects of this course are almost incalculable. We earnestly ask our Democratic friends everywhere to consider this subject carefully."

The Post's first question is unanswered and unanswerable. Its advice to the Democracy was sound, and events are rapidly vindicating its wisdom. Gen. GRANT will be elected as the President of the people, and none will be better satisfied with the result than the eloquent and patriotic writer of the paragraph quoted.

THE INSANITY OF POLITICS.

Under this caption, the Philadelphia Ledger, usually known as an independent journal, but with Democratic proclivities printed, editorially, a few days since, the annexed dignified and candid protest against the revolutionary policy of the Democratic party. Showing, as it does, the occasion for serious alarm, and as bearing cogent testimony to the correctness of the interpretations which the friends of the Union have placed upon reeent Democratic avowals of principles and intentions, the Ledger article deserves a thoughtful perusal. It says:

Every good citizen must look with profound regret upon a great deal that is now going on in the Southern States. There was room for the belief, after the rebellion was suppressed, and when the Southern people were brought face to face with the wide spread ruin that was brought upon them by that "gigantic blunder," as some of their statesmen called it, and crime, as the nation regarded it, that they would never more give countenance to the hot-headed and hair-brained orators and writers who had dragged them into that terrible desolation. But notwithstanding the bitter experience of the past seven years, that fruitful section of our country is still cursed with the influence and the active agency of the same classes of men. But a short time ago it was the belief of an unquestionable majority of the people of the old free States, that the planters, farmers, merchants, manufacturers, and all others in the South, engaged in industrial and productive pursuits, were heartily sick of all the memories of the late rebellion, and were anxious to put them all aside, so that they might get their business affairs into successful action once more, and go on with the necessary operations of life. There can be but little doubt that such was the case, and we cherish the belief that it still remains true to the masses of the people of that section of our country. Yet what wonder is it that many plain, good people in the North and West believe that the rebellious spirit still prevails, only waiting for another opportunity to break out afresh? They are told so day after day, and week after week, by those who are put forward or who put themselves forward as the representative spokesmen of the old slave States. This comes to us from conventions, from meetings, and through the partisan press. The utterances on these occasions are of the most mischievous character, damaging to the people of the South, and exasperating the people of the rest of the country. They are naturally looked upon as showing the temper of the great mass of the Southern people, and the inference quite as naturally follows that those who show such a spirit of glorification over the events of 1861 to 1865, will not be slow to repeat them if the chance presents itself, and that they are therefore not to be trusted. They boast of the achievments of the rebellion, they apostrophise the rebellious flag, they declare that the "Lost Cause" is to be resurrected, they speak lightly of murdering the "Northern Huns," they declare that their former comrades in arms are ready to rise again when the signal is given, and they deal generally in a grand round of the same style of exasperating oratory that "fired the Southern heart" before the rebellion, and which at last fired the Northern heart also. There is great danger that both may be fired again—and the worst enemy to the South could hardly desire a worse fate to befall that unhappy country.

Some of the most sagacious of the Southern newspapers it is true, have deprecated such speeches and publications as injurious to the canvass for the Presidency, and on this ground have tried to muzzle the slang-whanging speech makers and editors. But this is not a satisfactory ground to put the case upon at all. What is said and done is not condemned because it is wrong and bad in itself but because it is impolitic. Now, although this may go down with party men, it will not satisfy those whom the Southern people ought to be studious to retain as their friends. It will not satisfy those who desire to be generous to the South, because they wish to see the people of the South rescued from the ruin of the rebellion, but who at the same time hold their country above party, and will not associate themselves with any movement that keeps alive the spirit of the rebellion. It will not satisfy those thinking and independent voters who are not blindly bound to follow the dictates of party, and who in these days hold the balance of power among all parties.

Some of the most sagacious of the Southern newspapers it is true, have deprecated such speeches and publications as injurious to the canvass for the Presidency, and on this ground have tried to muzzle the slang-whanging speech makers and editors. But this is not a satisfactory ground to put the case upon at all. What is said and done is not condemned because it is wrong and bad in itself but because it is impolitic. Now, although this may go down with party men, it will not satisfy those whom the Southern people ought to be studious to retain as their friends. It will not satisfy those who desire to be generous to the South, because they wish to see the people of the South rescued from the ruin of the rebellion, but who at the same time hold their country above party, and will not associate themselves with any movement that keeps alive the spirit of the rebellion. It will not satisfy those thinking and independent voters who are not blindly bound to follow the dictates of party, and who in these days hold the balance of power among all parties.

PITTSBURGH STEEL.

Interesting Experiment—Testing a Cast Steel Boiler.

"A few weeks ago we published tabular statements of the strength of specimens of boiler plate made by Pittsburgh manufacturers, as determined by Mr. Benjamin Crawford, Special Agent of the Treasury Department, in the Washington Navy Yard. One of these, a steel plate of the grade denominated "homegeneous metal," made by Park, Brother & Co., showed a tensile strength of over ninety-one thousand pounds—nearly one-half more than any iron plates in competition with it, and its flanging properties were also pronounced superior. The best competing specimen was called iron, but was really a low grade of steel."

PITTSBURGH, August 22, 1868

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE, Gentlemen:

We clip the above from your issue of this date. We were invited in common with others early this season to send a specimen of our homegeneous steel plate to the Treasury Department at Washington for trial, and below hand you a copy of their report, which shows that our plate stood an average tensile strain of about 94,000 pounds per square inch, nearly 3,000 pounds more than claimed by Messrs. Park, Bro. & Co. for their's, a result that does not by any means correspond with the apparently authorized statement to which we invite attention above. We were the original successful manufacturers of homegeneous steel plates in this country, and we believe anywhere. At the time we commenced manufacturing them, imported plates were pretty much out of use, having proved so inferior and unreliable that railroad engineers and others had lost confidence in them, and had resumed the use of iron and copper in the construction of the locomotive, so that in attempting to introduce them we had the prejudices created by the failures of others to contend with, as well as the usual difficulty in introducing a new article. Our plates are now largely in use on the leading railroads, and in many of the locomotive works of the country, their entire reliability having at last convinced, the most skeptical of their great superiority over any other material for the construction of the locomotive.

We felt obliged to notice the above in print, as it was calculated to do us injustice.

Respectfully yours,
HUSSEY, WELLS & CO.

Tensile Strength of Cast Steel Boiler Plate from the works of Hussey, Wells & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa., as determined June 16, 1868, at the Navy Yard, Washington, D. C., for the Treasury Department.

No. of Specimen.	Dimensions at point of rupture.	Area at point of rupture.	Actual breaking weight.	Tensile strength per sq. inch.
1.	1.5X26	.39	35,700	91,538
2.	1.5X26	.39	35,500	91,023
3.	1.5X26	.39	36,925	94,679
4.	1.5X26	.39	36,575	93,782
5.	1.5X26	.39	36,900	94,615
6.	1.5X26	.39	38,000	97,435
	Mean			93 995

The flanging qualities of this plate were tested and proved to be very superior.

How a Veteran will Vote.

At the meeting of the First Ward Grant Club, Allegheny city, on Friday night last, a veteran gentleman, aged seventy-five years, came forward and said he wanted to join the Grant and Colfax Club. He had been a Democrat all his life; had never voted any other ticket; but he could not now, in the hour of the nation's extremity, vote the tickets of the enemies of his country. His name is Cornelius—a name well known in this county, and honored by all who know it.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM?

Many persons, supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Linaments, Plasters and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with its functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in avoiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should be once resorted to.

DR. SARGENT'S

Diuretic or Backache Pills

Can be relied on for these purposes: they have a direct influence on the cells of the kidneys, assists nature in relieving them of any foreign particles, and mulates them to a healthy and vigorous action

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Contain nothing injurious, being composed of entirely vegetable remedies; they do not sicken nor gripe—on the contrary they act as a gentle tonic and restores tone to the system. They are recommended by all who who have tried them.

THE BODY RENEWED.

According to Physiologists, the human body is renewed once in seven years. Every day, every hour, every moment, the flesh, the cartilage, bone and muscle of the frame are wasting away, and being imperceptibly replaced by new material. Health depends upon the nature of that material, and whether it shall be pure or diseased, full of vitality and elasticity, or feeble and flaccid, depends mainly upon the action of the stomach. In warm weather the waste of the system is very rapid, and if it is not as rapidly repaired by the great sustaining organ, the consequence is debility, emaciation and decay. It is, therefore, of paramount importance that the stomach be kept in a vigorous condition at this trying season, and the safest, surest and best tonic that can be employed for that purpose is HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. This incomparable vegetable stomachic gives unwonted energy to the digestive powers, promotes the conversion of the food into healthful blood, (which is, so to speak, the raw material of all the solid portions of the body,) and thereby puts the system in the best possible state of defence against epidemic or other diseases. The strong require it to keep up their strength; the weak, to re-invigorate them. It consists of the purest of all diffusive stimulants, charged with the juices and extracts of the most genial roots and herbs, and is a permanent restorative—not a mere temporary excitant. It acts simultaneously upon the stomach, the bowels and the liver, and is the best known remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness, costiveness and general debility.

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE EAR.

In observations and notes taken by Dr. KEYSER, of this city, on the various diseases of the ear, he says that nine out of ten cases could be cured in their incipiency if application were made to some responsible and competent aural surgeon. The Doctor quotes from the opinion of Wilde, a well known aural surgeon, who says: "I fear not to reiterate the assertion which I made on several former occasions, that if the disease of the ear were as well studied or understood by the generality of practitioners, and as early attended to as those of the eye, it would be found that they were just as much within the pale of scientific treatment. * * Deafness is so common and so distressing an infirmity, and when of long standing so incurable, that we cannot too strongly urge all medical practitioners to make themselves familiar with the treatment of the diseases of the ear.'

The Doctor says that nearly all annoying Discharges, Buzzings and Morbid Growths peculiar to the organ of the hearing, some of which had lingered through a score or two of years, can be cured or ameliorated by proper treatment.

CARPET BEATING

ESTABLISHMENT.

Which TEN YEARS' TRIAL in New York and other Eastern cities has proved a complete success.

ITS ADVANTAGES:

1st—Fading and Shrinkage are completely avoided.
2d—No ripping apart necessary.
3d—When freed from dust, moths or their larvae, the Carpet looks nearly as good as new, save the natural fading from wear.
4th—When perfectly clean, a Carpet will wear as long again, a desirable matter as a mere point of economy, to say nothing of looks.

EDUCATIONAL.

THE WESTERN UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Every Parent and Guardian who has a son or ward to educate should know that we have in our city a Chartered Institution, endowed by the State and the generous friends of learning to the amount of $200 000. Preparatory, Commercial, Scientific and Collegiate in character, with a Faculty ten in number, and a course of study equal to that of our best Colleges. The rooms are large and high, and the apparatus and cabinet of a superior kind. The Observatory belonging to it has one of the finest telescopes in the country, is endowed, is in charge of an Astronomer of great ability, and is having four new instruments added to it at an expense of $5,000. All the income from endowment and from tuition is expended in supporting the institution. The aim of the Board of Trustees, who are among our most enterprising and benevolent citizens, is to furnish the best advantages to all on youth equal to those enjoyed in any of our cities. The instruction in all the courses of study is thorough, no temporary expedients being resorted to to secure popularity merely. Only Professors of ability and experience are employed.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, August 22, 1868.

In gold a firmer feeling was manifested to day, but in the absence of any uncovered short sales, the market is barely sustained, and the whole course of the market points towards lower quotations.

Government securities are only sustained by the yet comparatively low rates for call loans; the large dealers are not disposed to cover and look for lower prices. The investment demand is light, except some small orders from the country, and before large capitalists take hold of them, the market must have declined at least one per cent. yet.

The stock market is weak and unsettled; the partial advance this forenoon has been lost again in the afternoon, and the swindling operations of the Erie directors cannot fail to affect the general market to a further degree. It is stated on good authority that Erie has not yet touched its lowest point, and that it may see the thirties before a reaction will take place. All those who calculate on 69 again will have to await a long time before confidence is restored. The purchase of the sound steamers and the lease of the roads connecting with Boston, also the issue of four millions of new stock may all be false, and if the directors can put the stock low enough and clean out all the small speculators for a while they will let it drop still further.

Business is dull. Money is still easy.

The New York Stock quotations to-day as received by Mr. Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold 144¼; 1881's, 113⅝; 5-20's, 1862, 113¼; do 1864, 108⅞; do 1865, 111½; do new, 107¾; do 1867, 107⅛; 10-40's, 108¼; Cleveland & Pittsburgh 85⅝; Fort Wayne, 106½; Western Union Telegraph 33¾; Adams Express, 49; Erie, 48; New York Central, 123¾; Reading, 89½; Michigan Southern, 82¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 80⅝; Chicago & North Western, 80⅝; do Preferred, 80⅝.

—Last feature in the Erie gamble in New York is the premature closing of the transfer books previous to the election. This action of the directors is said to be a movement in their own favor and to enable them to hold control of the Company at the next election. A very considerable amount of the stock recently has been going in their names and the names of those of their friends. It was not generally expected that the books would be closed prior to the 15th of September.

New York Dry Goods Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, August 22.—Trade more active; only change to-day is in the offering of good live prints at one shilling per yard, at which price they sold freely. The Graniteville mills are selling a first class article Brown sheetings, at 16c but best Eastern makes are worth 17c, and two or three brands are held at 17½c; very good sheeting like Stark A and Lymon E are selling as low as 16a16½c. In bleached muslins there is very little change of prices, and generally steady at 28c for Manville; 15c for New York Mill; 59c for Wamsutta and Utica Nonpareil; 22½c for Tuscarora and Arkwright Water Twist; 18½c for Lonesdale; 18c for Hills Semper Idem and Forestdale; 17c for Longley, and 13½c for Red Bank. Black Rock Linseys now bring 22½.

Chicago Cattle Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CHICAGO, August 22.—Cattle dull and entirely nominal. Hogs active; sales $9,25a 9,62½ for fair to medium and $9,75a10,10 for good to choice smooth.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, August 22, 1868.

In general merchandise there is but little that is new or important; the volume of business, in the aggregate, seems to be increasing somewhat. The demand for almost everything is entirely of a consumptive character, there being an almost entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling, and, as a consequense the transactions are mainly of a retail character.

BUTTER—There is a steady demand, and we can report regular sales of prime to choice fresh packed at 33 to 36c.

EGGS—Dull and unchanged at 14 to 15c.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged at 14 to 15c for Western Reserve and Hamburg; 16 to 17c for Factory, and 19 to 20c for Sweitzer.

SEEDS—Sales of Flaxseed at $2,25, and Timothy at $3,25. Clover seed is nominal at $7,50 to $8.

SALT—Is dull and unchanged at $1,75 to $1,80, to the trade, for Allegheny River brands and $2 for small lots in store.

GRAIN—Wheat remains unchanged here, notwithstanding it is tumbling in almost every direction; in Chicago it has declined from 12 to 15 cents per bushel within the last day or two, and the decline is accounted fer by heavy receipts. We continue to quote at $2,10 to $2,15 for Red and $2,15 to $2,20 for White, and the outside quotation can only be realized for choice. New Oats continue to arrive freely, and while the market is a little heavy, prices are unchanged—60 in first hands, and 63 to 65 for small lots. Corn of which the supply is light, is firm but unchanged; Shelled is quoted at $1,06 to $1,12 for mixed to prime Yellow. Ear Corn is selling in store at $1.14 to $1,16. New Rye is in good demadd at $1,35, and there is little or none offering. Barley continues quiet; we are cognizant of some receipts from the west, which it is said will cost about $1,70 here; prime Penna. and Ohio Barley, would doubtless command $1,75, and possibly $1,80.

MILL FEED—The mill prices are unchanged, as follows; Screenings $1; Bran $1,10; Shipstuffs $1,30; and Middlings $2,20.

HAY—Is still quoted at $20 to $30 from country wagons, as to quality.

GREEN APPLES—The market is pretty well glutted and prices are barely maintained, ranging from $3 to $4 per bbl, for good to prime.

POTATOES—In rather better demand but unchanged at $3.50 to $3,75 per bbl.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is in steady demand and firm, but with the exception of Shoulders which are a shade higher, prices remain unchanged; we now quote at at 14¼ to 14½ for Shoulders; 16½ to 16¾ for Ribbed and 18½ to 18¾ for Clear Sides; and 22 to 22½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard, 19¾ to 20, for prime kettle rendered: Mess Pork, $30 to $30.50.

LARD OIL—Is firm but unchanged at $1,20 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

FLOUR—The market is moderately active, there being a fair local demand, and prices are unchanged at $10.50 to $10,75 for choice old Spring Wheat, and $11 to $11,50 for Winter Wheat. The mills report a good business at the recent advance: Double Extra, in barrels, $11,50, and in sacks, $11; Extra Family, $10,80, in barrels, and $10,50, in sacks. Rye Flour, $9,25 for old.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBUGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, August 22, 1868.

CRUDE—The market has been dull and panicky throughout the past week, and to-day has been no exception to those preceeding it. There was but a single sale reported, 1,000 bbls, to be delivered between the first and 20th of September, seller's option, at 13c. Later in the day this figure could not have been realized for that delivery, though we do not believe that any sellers could have been found below; indeed, there is but little oil offering, either for present or future. All the year, seller's option, is offered at 12½c, without finding takers—yesterday there was a sale of 1,000 each month from September to December, inclusive, at 13c. The asking price at Oil City to-day was $5, though we heard it intimated that a plump offer of $4,80 would doubtless have met with a favorable response. Upon the whole, the market has been in a very sickly and complicated condition all week, and while the decline thus far has not been very great, the tendency, nevertheless, appears to be strongly downward.

REFINED—There has been considerable excitement in Refined during the past two or three days, and while the market has been constantly fluctuating, the tendency, as a general thing, has been downward, and some of the strongest bulls have become a little weak in the knees, while the bears have had it pretty much their own way. The sales for the last half of August have been quite large, aggregating nine thousand barrels in one day, and the price for that delivery declined during the week from 33¾ to 31½c, at which figure it was offered this afternoon, without finding buyers. The late months have also declined in nearly the same ratio, and even at the decline, the demand is by no means urgent, and buyers are scarce. The sales to-day were: 500 bbls first half October at 32c; 500 last half September at 32c: 1,000 August at 31½c; 500 last half October at 32, and 1,000 each for September, October, November and Decembber, on private terms. Late last evening a shrewd operator who had a slight index of what was coming, sold a "line" of 500 each for September, October and November, at 32½c.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

TWO LADIES FORTY YEARS AGO.

Grace Greenwood, in the book called Eminent Women, writes as follows about Fanny Fern and Mrs. Stowe as they were before they became known to fame.

Sarah Willis was educated at Hartford, in the far famed seminary of Miss Catharine Beecher. At that time Harriet Beecher (Mrs. Stowe) was a teacher in this school. She was amiable and endearing in her ways, and was recognized as a decidedly clever young lady with a vein of quiet humor, a sleepy sort of wit, that woke up and flashed out when least expected; but of a careless, unpractical turn of mind. She was not thought by any means the equal in mental powers and weight of her elder sister, whose character was full of manly energy, who was a clear thinker, and an excellent theologian, a good, great, high-hearted woman, with a strong will and remarkable executive abilities. Of all his children, Dr. Beecher is said to have most highly respected Catharine. Sarah Willis must here have laid an excellent foundation for successful authorship, though probably nothing was farther from her thoughts at the time than such a profession. It would have seemed too quiet and thought compelling a career for her, with her heart as full of frolic as a lark's breast is of singing. There are yet traditions in that staid old town of Hartford, of her merry school-girl escapades, her "tricks and her manners," that draw forth as hearty laughter as the witty sallies, humorous fancies, and sharp strokes of sanire that give to her writings their peculiar sparkle and dash. If she grappled with the exact sciences it is not probable that they suffered much in the encounter. For geometry she is said to have an especial and inveterate dislike. Indeed, her teacher, Mrs. Stowe, still tells a story of her having torn out the leaves of Euclid to curl her hair with. So, she laid herself down to mathematical dreams her fair head bristling with acute angles, in parallelogrammatic paralelopipedonic papillotes, in short, with more geometry outside than in. A novel way of getting over "the dunce bridge," by taking that distasteful fifth proposition not only inwardly, but as an outside application, so that it might have read thus: "The angles at the base of an isoscales triangle are equal to one another; and if the equal sides be produced in curl papers, the angles on the other side of the os-frontis are also equal." But in the laughing, high-spirited girl there must have existed unsuspected by herself, the courage and energy, the tenderness, the large sympathy, the reverence for the divine and the human, which love and sorrow, the trials and stress of misfortune, were to envolve from her nature, and which her genius was to reveal. A seer that might have perceived towering above the ringleted head of her absent minded young teacher, a dark attendant spirit, benignant, but mournful—poor, grand, old world-bewept, pollyglotted Uncle Tom—might also have seen in the few shaddowy recesses of her young pupil's sunny character, the germs of these graceful "Fern Leaves" that were to bring to the literature of the people new vigor and verdure, the odors of woodlands, and exceeding pleasant pictures of nature.

THE MOON AND THE WEATHER.

Professor Elias Lommis has recently published the result of his seven years observations upon the effects of the moon upon atmospheric phenomenon. The paper contains a short account of the labors of other observers, nearly all of whom, while admitting the lunar influence, differ in their conclusions. Schubler in Germany, after twenty-eight years' observations, ended in 1839, deducted a sensible influence of the moon, the rainy days, at the time when the moon was seven days old, being twenty-five per cent. greater than when she was fourteen days old. Mr. Harrison, of England, by comparing the tables of sixteen years of observations at Greenwich, nine years at Oxford, and sixteen years at Berlin, obtained results remarkably consistent with each other, and which indicate that the moon exerts an appreciable influence upon terrestrial temperature, the maximum about four days after the full, the difference between the temperatures at the periods named being two and a half degrees Fahrenheit.

Mr. Ballat, on tabulating a series of seventy years mean daily temperature, according to the moon's age, found that the highest temperature occurred during the seven days after full moon, being precisely opposite to the results of Mr. Harrison.

Schaparelli, an Italian philosopher, after a careful analysis of thirty-eight years of observations made in Northern Italy, attained results which are also remarkably consistent with each other. They show that about the time of the last quarter of the moon there is a maximum in the number of rainy days, as also in the frequency of storms and in the degree of cloudiness. Prof. Loomis draws the conclusion from his table of seven years' observation, that the moon does not affect the weather, and maintains, in direct opposition to Prof. Herschel, that the moon, just before its full, influenced the weather toward cloudiness rather than clearness, and followed the same law as the sun. The changes however, are inappreciable to ordinary observers, and no rules can be laid down that will be useful in the transactions of daily life. The theory is only important as inviting investigation by observers with philosophical instruments.

The Cattle Disease in New York.

The Governor of New York, in pursuance of an act passed in 1866, has appointed three commissioners to direct and establish such quarantine and other regulations as they may deem necessary to prevent the introduction and spread of the cattle disease in the State of New York.

The commissioners met at Albany, on the 17th inst., and have published certain regulations as the result of their deliberations. The first provides that all cars containing cattle shall be stopped, on or before entering the State, and if the cars are not in proper sanitary condition, the cattle shall be disembarked and the cars thoroughly cleansed and disinfected. The same process to be repeated at any place, if the cars are found to be filthy.

Second. If at any place, any cattle in cars are found to be diseased, they are immediately to be stopped and to be put in quarantine, separating the sick from the well, disinfecting the cars, and doing everything necessary for treatment and for prevention until the disease has ceased.

Third. All cattle entering the State by vessels, or on the public highways, are subjected to the same careful inspection and sanitary restrictions. The commissioners also prohibit the slaughtering of animals that have been exposed to infection, until permission is given.

The regulations seem to be judicious, and if faithfully enforced, will afford some protection, not only to New York, but also to New England, as the greater portion of their beef cattle passes through Albany.

THE Spectroscope has been so modified by Professor Osborn, of Lafayette College, that, it is stated, he can detect from a room many hundred yards distant from a furnace the sodium in the coal or decomposed fire brick proceeding from the furnace mouth, also any lime or potash that may be present.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY, Ithica, N. Y., is to receive from the British Government a complete set of the publications of the Patent Office of that country, consisting of more than 2,300 volumes. The grant includes also those books which shall hereafter be printed in continuation of the set.

Trans-Atlantic Gossip.

LABOULAYE has published a very remarkable paper on the political situation in the United States. He says that, even though the horizon should be less bright than the most prominent Republican papers in the United States claim, he considers Grant and Colfax's election a foregone conclusion; "for," says he, "at every critical juncture in its history, the American Republic, when its citizens were thoroughly aroused, has had the best of luck, and so it will be again this time. The election of Seymour and Blair would be a great calamity, and the United States are always too lucky on such occasions to make me think, even for a moment, that Grant and Colfax could succumb."

IN case war should break out between Prussia and France, Bazine would be appointed commander-in-chief of the French army, and Dumont, Failly, and Montauban would command corps under him. Canrobert, who is of no account in the field, would be left in command of the Garde Mobile at Paris, and the Emperor would go to Strasburg. This is what the officers said at the camp of Chalons. Niel is considered too imperious by the Emperor, who also distrusts MacMahon. Prince Napoleon would preside over the Council of State in the Emperor's absence, and a number of leading Repuplicans, Orleanists and Legitimatists would be placed under strict surveillance.

THE execution of the murderers of the late Prince of Servia was a horrible affair. The second culprit did not die until three volleys had been fired at him. After the first volley, when five bullets had struck him, he stood erect for a few minutes and then fell on his face, so that the officer in command thought he was dead; but suddenly the wounded man sprang to his feet again, and remained erect until the second volley was fired. He fell again, but lay writhing and groaning on the ground. The third file of soldiers were then ordered to step close up to the poor fellow and discharge their muskets into his breast.

THIRTY Americans participated in the great Vienna schuetzenfest. Mr. Paul De Climes, of New York, carried the banner sent from Highland, Illinois, and Messrs. H. Plaspohl and Chas. Lack, of Cincinnati, carried a large American flag, presented by Louis I. Ladner, of Philadelphia, who was likewise in the procession. At the great banquet a special table had been assigned to the Americans, among whom was also the well-known Marcus Otterburg.

THE King of Prussia now appears seldom in public without being accompanied by a very handsome colored boy, whom Gerhard Rohlfs, the celebrated traveler, brought with him from Abyssinia, and placed under the protection of His Majesty. The King says he thinks the boy is exceedingly talented, and he will give him an excellent education.

In the Vale of Blackmoor, in the West of England, the farmers have been feeding their cattle on hay for several weeks past, there being no grass, owing to the drouth.

PERRY'S VICTORY.—The fifty-fifth anniversary of the Perry victory will be celebrated at Put-in Bay, by the following survivors, on the 10th of September, 1868: Usher Parsons, Surgeon, and the only living commissioned officer of the flag-ship Lawrence; Stephen Champlin, Commander of the Ariel, who fired the first and last gun in the memorable battle, now of Buffalo, New York; John Norris, of the Caledonia, now of Petersburg, Kentucky, and Dr. W. T. Tallaferro, of the Somers, now of Cincinnati, and others are expected to be present. All the survivors of the war of 1812 and 1813 are cordially and earnestly requested to participate.

A NEW safety valve has been patented in England, so contrived that when the water falls below a certain height, a float upon its surface raises a valve and permits the water to escape directly into the fire, thereby extinguishing it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE APPETITE FOR

Tobacco Destroyed!

Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be, IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

(From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.)
BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times, but left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.
W. P. HEALD.

(From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.)
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.
E. W. ADKINS.

(From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.)
BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.
JOHN MORRILL.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

The August Special Term of the United States Circuit Court, before Judge McCandless, commences to-day.

Snooks inquires if there is no ordinance to prevent the Democrats from block-heading Fifth street every evening?

Fire in Sharpsburg.—The drug store of Mr. J. Pierce was destroyed by fire about three o'clock Friday morning. Mr. Pierce's loss will amount to about five thousand dollars, on which there is only a partial insurance.

Larceny of a Revolver.—Saturday evening Chief Green recovered a revolver at DeRoy's pawn broker shop which it appears had been stolen from Frank Weigandt's saloon. The officers know who the thief was and are on his track.

Alleged Larceny.—James Karney made information before Justice Lindsay on Saturday charging John Copeland with larceny. The accused was arrested yesterday morning and after a hearing was committed to jail in default of bail for his appearance at court.

Surety of the Peace.—Thomas Poll made information before Justice Heisel, Saturday, against his son, Andrew Poll, for surety of the peace. The parties reside in Lower St. Clair township. The young Poll was arrested, after which the difficulty was amicably adjusted.

The Perfect Order observed at the Republican meeting in Birmingham on Saturday evening, and also at the Democratic meeting at the same place on the evening previous, was in the highest degree creditable, and we trust this orderly disposition may prevail throughout the campaign.

Threatened His Wife.—Mary Phillips made information before Justice Heisel Saturday, in which she alleges that her husband, Aldridge Phillips, threatened to take her life. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Aldridge, who if arrested will probably be held to bail for surety of the peace.

Special Election.—A special election will be held in Allegheny, on the first of September, to fill vacancies in the Common Council, occasioned by the resignations of William H. Dunham, of the Second ward, and Henry Sever, of the Seventh ward. A proclamation ordering the election has been issued by Mayor Drum.

Assault and Battery.—Agnes Kane made information before Alderman Taylor on Saturday, charging John Moran with assault and battery. The accused resides at No. 15 Carson street, which it appears they occupy jointly. They quarrelled about the right to the entrance and wound up the quarrel with a fight. A warrant was issued.

A Missing Man Found.—Several weeks since we published an account of the mysterious disappearance of Jacob Lies, of Allegheny, since when nothing had been heard of him until Saturday evening when he made his appearance as unexpectedly as was his depature. It is not known definitely where he has been sojourning during his absence.

Fire in Washington County.—Wednesday morning the steam grist and saw mills in Prosperity, Washington county, were totally destroyed by fire, involving a loss to the owner, Mr. David Gantz, of about $3,000, upon which there is an insurance of $1,600. The fire was undoubtedly caused by an incendiary, as it was first discovered in the third story of the building, and there had been no fire there for three weeks. Suspicions are entertained which may lead to the arrest of the guilty party.

Hardware, Hardware.—We refer our readers to the business card of Whitesides & Drum in this day's paper. Their stock of hardware is extensive and varied, embracing especially almost every article of the most approved brands required by house builders. It has also the advantage of being new, and purchased by the proprietors directly from the manufacturers, both foreign and domestic. The store is at 79 Federal street, Allegheny, but a few steps from the several railway depots. Goods bought at this establishment will be carefully and skilfully packed and promptly forwarded as may be directed to any instruction.

The Walking Match, of which we have previously spoken, was concluded Saturday night at eleven o'clock by Keefer, Miles having previously withdrawn from the contest, on the ground, as he alleges, that the door keeper was defrauding him. The match was decided in Keefer's favor, he having walked the one hundred hours according to the stipulation of the agreement. During the latter part of the evening he seemed quite fatigued, and many thought that he could not hold out. As the time drew near for him to stop, the excitement increased. At a few minutes after eleven he left the stand, and was placed in a carriage and driven home, amid the cheers of those assembled.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

A rule was granted on plaintiff in the case of Wm. Enler vs. C. Otto Hess and Jacob Ziegler to show cause why the judgment as to Jacob Ziegler should not be set aside—the proceedings in the meantime to be stayed.

RALLYING OF THE FORCES.

Republican Meetings.

Organization of the City Executive Committee

The members of the newly appointed Republican City Executive Committee held a meeting for the purpose of permanently organizing on Saturday afternoon at the office of W. C. Moreland, Esq., Fifth street. There was a full attendance. The following gentlemen were elected permanent officers of the Committee: Chairman, David Holmes: Vice President, Joseph A. Butler; Secretary, Joseph Hartman; Finance Committee, Dr. Gilmore, David Holmes, John W. Riddell, J. A. Butler.

A resolution offered by Mr. Riddell was passed requesting the County Executive Committee to make an appropriation to the City Committee of funds to be used in the municipal election campaign.

Mr. Butler moved that the time for holding the primary meetings for the nomination of ward officers be determined and designated by the respective representatives of the several wards in the City Executive Committee. Carried.

A motion was made and carried recommending that said elections be conducted in the same manner as that adopted at the recent municipal primary elections; also providing, where any vacancy may occur in the Election Board, the representatives of the ward where such vacancy shall occur, or the County Republican Executive Committee, shall designate and appoint a successor to act at the primary meeting.

It was resolved that seven members shall constitute a quorum for all meetings of the Committee.

An invitation having been received for the Committee to participate in the reception of Gen. Schurz, it was resolved to accept the honor, and Dr. Gilmore and Mr. Hartman were appointed to confer with the German Committee on arrangements.

After passing a vote of thanks to W. C. Moreland for the free use of his office and the invitation to occupy it at pleasure, the Committee adjourned to meet again on Friday next, at 3 o'clock P. M., at the City Hall,

Mass Meeting in Allegheny—Tremendous Outpouring of the People—The Masses Aroused.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings of the campaign was held Saturday evening, at the Hope Engine House, First ward, Allegheny, under the auspices of the Grant and Colfax Club of that ward. The voters of the ward turned out en masse, and there were quite a number of ladies present. After some excellent music by a brass band, and a song by Prof. Slack's Glee Club, the meeting was organized by calling Mr. Henry Irwin to the chair and appointing a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The President, on taking the Chair, thanked the meeting for the honor conferred upon him, and in a brief address introduced

GEN. WILLIAM BLAKELY.

Mr. Blakely, after a few preliminary remarks, entered into a lengthy and able discussion of the financial question. His remarks were forcible and argumentative, and were attentively listened to by the audience.

The audience were then favored with a song by the Quartette Club, and instrumental music by the band, after which the Chairman introduced

THOMAS M. MARSHALL, ESQ.

Mr. Marshall, who is a favorite in Allegheny, was enthusiastically received, and his address was highly applauded by the entire audience. After running over the record of the two parties for the past ten years, he turned his attention to the opposing candidates for the Presidency, and after drawing a comparison, in which Seymour sank into insignificance, he eulogized Grant in most eloquent terms.

HON. JAMES L. GRAHAM.

The Chairman then introduced Hon. James L. Graham, who entertained the meeting with an able and eloquent address, during which he urged upon all good and true men who loved their country to buckle on their armor and fight bravely until the enemy was vanquished.

After Mr. Graham had concluded the meeting adjourned with three times three for the National, State and county Republican ticket.

Fourth Ward, Allegheny.

An interesting meeting of the Grant and Colfax Club of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, was held Saturday evening at the headquarters, College Hall, corner Sandusky and Lacock streets.

The President, Mr. John Megraw, upon taking the Chair, delivered a short but effective speech, urging the members to renewed exertions and reminding them that "ceaseless vigilance is the price of victory."

Upon the adoption of the minutes of the preceding meeting, Mr. Megraw offered his resignation as President of the Club, assigning as grounds for his action reasons of a private nature, which resignation was accepted, when Mr. John D. Baily, by acclamation, was elected to fill the vacancy.

The resignation of Capt. J. E. B. Dalzell, one of the Secretaries, offered because of his expected absence from the city during the next month, was accepted and the vacancy thus occasioned supplied by the unanimous election of W. B. Rodgers, Esq.

Pending the meeting of the Club the following Committees were appointed:

Finance Committee—Joseph C. Patterson, Alex. Postly, Joseph Shallenberger, John Megraw, James Marshall.

Committee on Speakers, Meetings and Documents—James W. Murray, John A. Myler, W. B. Rodgers, Esqrs.

Committee on Auxiliary Organizations—Col. L. W. Smith, Capt. Geo. W. Dawson, Adjt. A. P. Callow, Robt. M. Blair, Samuel Hazlett.

Committee to Sub-divide Ward and Appoint Block Committees—Adjt. A. P. Callow, Hugh McNeill, Col. L. W. Smith, John Megraw, Robt. M. Blair, William H. Falkner.

Hon. Samuel A. Purviance being present addressed the Club, hastily reviewing the political issues of the day, and urging the necessity of an active, immediate and thorough organization.

On motion, it was resolved to hold the regular business meetings every Saturday evening; and, further, during the next week to have a public mass meeting at a place to be fixed by the Committee on Meetings.

Quite a number of new members came forward and added their names to the roster of the Association, after which the Club adjourned to meet at its headquarters on Saturday evening next.

Birmingham.

Saturday evening, pursuant to call, the Grant and Colfax Club of Birmingham held a meeting in Market Hall, Mr. D. C. Ripley, the President, presiding. The object of the meeting was to make arrangements for participation in the demonstration in honor of General Carl Schurz, the soldier and patriot. There was music on the occasion, and it having been announced that several speakers would be present, by half-past seven o'clock the hall was crowded with citizens.

President Ripley called the assemblage to order, and having stated the business of the Club, it was resolved that all desirous of participating in the reception of General Schurz meet at the hall this evening at half-past seven, and proceed thence in a body to Republican head-quarters, City Hall.

On motion Mr. Martin Scheafer was chosen Chief Marshal, and Duncan McClain, William Weber, Fred. Albright and John Zeh selected as Aids.

The meeting then adjourned to the Market Square, in front of Mr. J. E. Scheafer's tavern, the crowd in the Hall being so great as to render it decidedly uncomfortable.

Order having been restored, the President of the Club introduced W. A. Leggate, Esq., who made a stirring address. His remarks were brief, but pointed, and their effect on the crowd was made manifest in hearty applause.

Mr. Ripley followed in a short speech, in which he referred to the efforts of orators of the opposition party to mislead the people from the true issue in the contest. He had faith in the intelligence of the people, and believed these efforts would fail of their intended effect, and that the party who had saved the country from destruction by rebel hands would triumph over these same rebels and their sympathizers through the ballot-box as they had through the cartridge box.

The next speaker was J. H. Kerr, Esq., who entertained the assemblage for over an hour, referring in eloquent terms to the great fight now progressing for the supremacy of Republican principles. He traced the doctrine of secession from its inception to its final and complete overthrow under the captain of the age, Gen. Grant, and under whose leadership he predicted another equally glorious triumph in November next.

When Mr. Kerr concluded, Mr. Ripley announced that on next Saturday evening a meeting would be held at the same place, when an address would be delivered by C. S. Poorman, Esq., of Ohio, specially intended for the workingmen.

The meeting then adjourned.

The following Committee has been appointed to preserve order at public meetings in the borough during the campaign: S. A. Barr, Duncan McLain, Wallace Cready, James Brown, John Verner, Jos. McDonald, Wm. Barr, D. Vanamon, John P. Snyder, Christian Gedekoh, William Weber, Fred. Albright, Charles H. Meyer, Martin Schaefer, John Eichly.

Beaver.

That the Republicans of Beaver county are keenly alive to the great issues of the hour, was amply evidenced by one of the largest political gatherings that ever assembled within its limits, on Friday evening, in the town of Beaver. The people turned out en masse and the meeting grew to such massive proportions that the commodious Court House was found entirely too small for the occasion, and an adjournment to the public grounds surrounding it was rendered necessary. Messrs. Donley and Thos. M. Marshall addressed the meeting. The latter made one of the most powerful speeches of the campaign, and though his remarks filled two hours and a half and extended beyond midnight, the meeting cried, "go on!" "go on!" as he concluded his speech. The Republicans of Beaver county will do their full duty at the approaching elections.

Grant Club Notices.

The members of the Second Ward Grant Club, and all others desiring to fall into the ranks in the torchlight procession in honor of Carl Schurz, will meet to-night at Wilkins Hall, at half-past six o'clock, where torches and oil will be on hand. Having secured a brass band for the occasion a cordial invitation is extended by the Second Ward Club to all other Clubs not thoroughly organized to join them in the procession.

The members of the Tanners' Club of Allegheny county, will meet this evening at Wilkins Hall (headquarters of the Second Ward Grant Club) for the purpose of forming into line to participate in the Carl Schurz demonstration. Prompt attendance is requested.

The Sixth ward Grant Club will meet this evening at half-past six o'clock in the Ann street School House, to form into line of procession to participate in the Schurz procession. As it is a matter of local pride, all voters of the ward should attend promptly and swell the ranks representing the old Eighth ward.

The Seventh and Eighth ward Grant Club will form for procession at the Franklin street School House.

The Grant Club of the Second ward, Allegheny, will form at half-past six o'clock at the School House for procession.

Meeting at Dunbar.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held by the Republicans of Fayette county was held on Saturday afternoon at Dunbar. There was a very general turn out and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Able addresses were made by Hon. John Covode and other gentlemen. Great disappointment was expressed that Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., was not present, but as he was not advised beforehand and had made other arrangements, the fault did not rest with him. The Republicans of Fayette county may be relied upon for doing their full share in the glorious work of electing Grant and Colfax.

At McKeesport.

A rousing old-fashioned meeting was held on Market square, McKeesport, on Saturday night in the interest of Grant and Colfax. The able speeches of the occasion were listened to with marked attention, and at times the wildest enthusiasm prevailed. The Second Ward Glee Club was in attendance from this city, and rendered several spirited campaign songs in very fine style.

Union Township.

A very large and splendid meeting was held at Banksville, in Union township, on Saturday night. The people turned out in their might, and never since the exciting days of 1860 has there been held a larger or more enthusiastic meeting. The speakers of the occasion ably discussed the issues of the hour, and their remarks called forth hearty bursts of applause.

McClure Township.

Several hundred persons assembled at Francis' brick yard, in M'Clure township, on Saturday night, to participate in the erection of a magnificent Grant and Colfax liberty pole and flag. Several speeches were made, and the affair passed off in the most gratifying manner. The pole will not be taken down or left without the proud floating flag till Grant and Colfax shall be inducted into the highest offices within the gift of the people.

Etna.

The Republicans in Etna are w de awake. They had a grand turnout on Thursday night last. The meeting was held out of doors, and was one of the finest gatherings of the campaign. Excellent addresses were made by B. F. Lucas, Miles Humphries and J. S. Lambie, Esqs., and everything passed off finely. The camp fires are burning brightly in old Shaler.

South Fayette.

There was a splendid turn out at the Miller's Run School House, in South Fayette township, on Thursday night. Able speeches were made by S. P. Fulton and W. S. McCune, Esqs., and the Republicans of that staunch old township were aroused to new life and energy. Everything looks well in that end of the county. South Fayette, particularly, will give a good account of herself.

Temperanceville.

There was a grand turn out in Temperanceville on Friday night to hear General Negley and J. F. Slagle, Esq., both of whom addressed the meeting at considerable length and to general acceptance. The meeting was not only large but enthusiastic, and the stirring Republicans of that thrifty borough give abundant tokens of being in dead earnest in their work.

Elizabeth.

Grant and Colfax mass meetings were held in Elizabeth on Saturday afternoon and evening, and both were largely attended. The people along the Monongahela river are keenly awake to the great issue of the hour, and will render a good account of themselves in October and November.

RECEPTION OF CARL SCHURZ.

Meeting of the Committee of Arrangement—The Programme and Route of Procession.

Pursuant to an invitation from the German Committee of Arrangement for the reception of Gen. Carl Schurz, the great German exponent of Republican principles, who will arrive in this city this evening, to the different Grant Clubs to participate with the German Clubs in a torch light procession, a meeting of delegates from the several Clubs of the two cities was held at City Hall on Saturday evening, in order to ascertain how many would participate in the reception, and to perfect the arrangements for the same.

The meeting was organized by Mr. Jos. Abel being called to the Chair, and Maj. Kilgore being chosen as Secretary.

The Chairman briefly stated the object of the meeting, and called upon Dr. Hardtmeyer, who had been appointed Chief Marshal of the German forces, to report what preliminary arrangements had been made.

Dr. Hardtmeyer replied that no arrangements further than appointing his assistant marshals had been made, and could not be made until he knew how many would probably participate in the procession.

The President then requested the delegates from the different Clubs to report to the Secretary the number of men each Club would muster on the occasion, and directed the Secretary to call over the list of the Clubs, beginning with the First ward.

Following are the numbers reported: First ward, 75; Second ward, 50; Third and Fifth wards, 50; Fourth ward, 50; Sixth ward, 75; Seventh and Eighth wards, 100; Ninth ward, 100; Twelfth ward, 50. First ward, Allegheny, 50; Second ward, 50; Third ward, 50; Fourth ward, 50; Seventh ward, 75; Central Tanners' Club, 100; total, 925.

Mr. Patterson of the Sixth ward, said that he had been consulting with Dr. Hardtmyer and at his suggestion would move the appointment of Col. Joseph Brown as Chief Marshal of the Grant Clubs, with power to appoint his assistants. The motion was adopted.

ROUTE OF PROCESSION.

Dr. Hardtmyer, Chief Marshal, then reported the following as the route of procession:

The procession will form on Market street in the Diamond, with the right resting on Fifth street, and will move along Market to Liberty, thence by way of St. Clair street to Penn, along Penn to Wayne thence on Wayne to Liberty, down Liberty to Smithfield, thence by Smithfild to the Monongahela House.

PROPOSED PROGRAMME.

The following programme has been adopted by the German Committee of arrangements:

Gen. Shurz will be received upon his arrival at the Union Depot by the Second ward Grant Club, which will escort him to his hotel, and afterwards to City Hall. The meeting he is to address will be called to order at precisely half past seven o'clock. The meeting will be continued until ten o'clock when the procession will form and headed by a band of music will march over the route designated to the Monongahela House, where the General will be serenaded, to which he will respond in English.

The Grant and Colfax Clubs of the twenty-three wards of Pittsburgh will form on Fourth street, the right resting on the east side Market street. The Allegheny County Tanners' Club will form in rear of the Pittsburgh clubs. The delegations from Allegheny will form on Fourth street with the right resting on the west side of Market street. All delegations from the south side of the rivers and country districts will form on Third street with the right resting on Market.

All clubs are requested to be in line at a quarter past nine o'clock.

RENDEZVOUS OF THE ENGLISH CLUBS.

The chairman stated that as the address of Gen. Schurz at City Hall would be in German, and consequently uninteresting to those not familiar with the language, the English Clubs he hoped would not occupy the hall, as it would doubtless be filled by German citizens. Mr. T. W. Davis, from the Seccond ward Grant club, therefore extended an invitation to all the English clubs to meet with the Second ward club at Wilkins' Hall, Fourth street, at nine o'clock. He stated that the Second ward Glee club and an excellent brass band would be in attendance, and he thought they could be pleasantly entertained for an hour.

On motion, the invitation was accepted, after which the meeting adjourned.

Row on Third Street.

A disgraceful fight occurred yesterday evening on Third street, near Smithfield, between John Crisler and William Row. It appears that the parties were both drunk, and had been amusing themselves on Third street by upsetting boxes and barrels from the sidewalk into the street. Crisler, when he could find nothing else to tumble over, shoved Row off the sidewalk, whereupon Row knocked him down, and a general fight ensued in which Row proved the better man. After getting Crisler down and pounding him for some time, during which he lost his shirt, Row, fearing the police might get around that way, left him and went up Third street. Crisler, although pretty badly beaten, was not satisfied and started in pursuit of Row. At Smithfield street the parties again came together with much the same result as before. An immense crowdd had assemble by this time, and Chief Green seeing it started in that direction, when both parties fled. The Chief followed Row, and after a short chase captured him and conducted him to the lock up. Crisler succeeded in making his escape and has not yet been arrested.

Larceny of a Hat.

Mr. J. J. Walker, while engaged at a game of billiards, Saturday, at the Revere House, hung his coat and hat on a hook, and during the game some enterprising young man picked up the hat, and, it is alleged, took a pocket book out of the coat pocket, containing $40. The fellow who appropriated the hat left the saloon, but it appears only reached the side-walk in front of the house, where he became involved in a quarrel with a drunkenman, and the two were arrested for disorderly conduct and taken before the Mayor, who committed them for twenty-four hours. Shortly after the officer had departed with them for the jail Mr. Walker came in the office and made known, his loss, whereupon he was shown a hat which Thomas Johnson, one of the parties just committed, had secreted under his coat, and which had been taken from him by the officer who arrested him. Walker at once identified the hat, and made information against Johnson charging him with the larceny of the hat and money. A commitment was lodged against him to answer the charge at Court.

Saengerfest.

We dropped in at the Rink on Saturday and found workmen busy in preparing a large fountain in the centre of the extensive floor. From this fountain jets of water and spray, illuminated by a multitude of gas-lights, cannot fail to elicit the admiration of the thousands who will attend the great exhibition. The fountain will be fringed by a rustic border of moss covered stones. Numbers of large basket boquets pendant from the ceilings, and numerous singing birds, will be among the charming features of the coming feast. That everything suggested by good taste and ample means will be done for the decoration of the Rink, is assured by the fact that the well known floriculturists and seed merchants, Messrs. Elliott Brothers, 116 Market street, have undertaken the job.

Fatal Accident on the Allegheny Valley Railroad.

We published in Saturday's GAZETTE a brief account of a collision on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, near Rollston Station, about thirty-nine miles north of this city, since when we have obtained the following details: At 11:27 A. M. a regular freight train bound north, drawn by engine No. 13, approached the curve on time, when it met a special train, consisting of the paymaster's car and a baggage car, drawn by engine No. 21, bound south. Both trains were moving rapidly, and when the engineers discovered the danger the locomotives were so near together that it was impossible to avoid a collision. Every effort was made, but the locomotives came together with heavy force, and both were thrown from the track. The fireman of No. 13, named Hardy, was caught between the locomotive and tender, and a long time elapsed before he could be rescued. He suffered intensely and prayed his friends to kill him and put him out of his agony. At last he was released and removed to Kittanning, where he expired Friday evening at seven o'clock. He resided in the Fifteenth ward of this city, and his remains were brought home on Saturday last. The engineer, Mr. Walters, was also injured, but it is thought he will recover. The locomotives were both more or less damaged. Some of the officers of the road, we are informed, were in the paymaster's car, but escaped unhurt.

If our information in regard to the affair is correct, it is quite evident that the accident was the result of carelessness on the part of some one, whether the party in charge of the special train, or the engineer of the regular train, we are unable to say. It is alleged that the special train was running on the time of the regular train, and that it had not been announced, which, if so, is not only culpable carelessness but highly criminal, as a collision would be the natural consequence of such carelessness.

A Home Educational Institute and Who Recommend Its Faculty.

The first session of the Pittsburgh Male and Female Seminary, Nos. 22 and 24 Fifth street, will open on Monday, September 7th. The course of study will be extensive, and will embrace all the English branches, German, French, Book Keeping, etc. Special attention will be given to the English branches, as they are the foundation of a solid education, and in this department able and experienced instructors have been employed. The Principal, Prof. H. I. Gourley, will spare no efforts to make the school second to none in the State, and his former success leaves no doubt of the result. The male and female departments, it may be proper to say, will be separate. The Principal can be seen daily at the rooms on Fifth street. Few gentlemen of this community could secure such hearty and unqualified endorsement as the following from our leading educators and scholars:

Knowing Prof. H. I. Gourley to be an earnest, energetic and successful teacher, as well as a gentleman and scholar, we heartily commend him, and the seminary which he is about to open, to the favor and patronage of the people:

The Benninghoff Robbery — Four More Arrests.

The Titusville Herald says: The interest in the Benninghoff robbery, upon which so much has been said and written, has by no means subsided in this section; but, on the contrary, it has been kept in a very lively state by occasional rumors of new "strikes" by the police and detectives, and by reports about the condition, prospects and intentions of the robbers who are in durance vile at Franklin. Reports have been circulated within a week or two to the effect that the police were about to secure parties implicated in the robbery, about whom the public had heard nothing, and the movements of certain officers who were thought to be working up a new case were watched closely. Yesterday these rumors took definite shape, three men who have been working as engineers in the vicinity of Bull Run having been arrested on the charge of having participated in the robbery. It appears that some time since Deputy Sheriff Kinney, of Petroleum Centre, got hold of a clue to what is alleged to be the gang which perpetrated the robbery, but which is wholly unconnected with that which was led by Jim Sæger, of Sægertown. From time to time Mr. Kinney has succeeded in obtaining the information which led to the arrest above mentioned. The names of the parties are suppressed at the request of their friends. The full particulars attending the implication and arrest have not yet transpired.

Beligerant Barbers.

Edward Inger made information before Mayor Drum, Saturday morning, charging Henry Blackmore with aggravated assault and battery. The parties are colored barbers and reside in Temperanceville. Blackmore was arrested and had a partial hearing before the Mayor. He states that he had been left in charge of a barber shop in Temperanceville, belonging to his son-in-law. Inger was employed in the shop, but yesterday he came to work considerably intoxicated. He was ordered out of the shop, and upon refusing to obey, "sufficient force" to eject him was used. Inger was badly beaten about the face, an ugly cut being apparent on the chin, while both eyes were swollen so much as to seriously interfere with his faculty of seeing. Blackmore denied having inflicted the injuries, and asserted that Inger must have been in another difficulty. Blackmore was held for a a further hearing.

In new Quarters.

The Bellfield Mission Sabbath School yesterday was opened for the first time in the new and elegant church edifice recently erected. The scholars were much delighted with the change from the humble quarters they had left. A number of zealous christian ministers and laymen made short addresses to the scholars preparatory to the re-organization of the classes. The school now numbers about one hundred and fifty as bright-eyed and intelligent children as can be mustered together in the city, and under the tuition and care of such philanthropic gentlemen as Messrs. Dillson, Carlisle, Loyd, McMaster, Lawton and others, the pupils cannot fail to grow up worthy ornaments to society and religion.

GENUINE

GLYCERINE TOILET SOAP,

MANUFACTURED BY

PETER SQUIRE, 277 Oxford street, London.

This Soap has been, by a peculiar process, freed from the excess of alkali almost invariably found even in the purest Soaps, and at the same time it is made to take up a large quantity of Glycerine (40 per cent). It is to this latter substance that it chiefly owes its soothing quality—softening the skin, preserving the complexion, preventing chapping and the unpleasant roughness experienced in cold weather. It is found most useful in allaviating the irritation produced by dryness of the skin. On account of its great purity it recommends itself to all persons that suffer from the use of common Soaps; for delicate skins it is the only soap that can be tolerated. It is particularly useful for cleansing diseased skins, where the irritation produced by ordinary Soaps causes so much inconvenience. It is the most agreeable Shaving Soap that can be used, leaving the skin soft and comfortable. The Soaps usually sold as Glycerine Soaps contain little or no Glycerine. It is only necessary to apply the tongue to the surface and the genuine will be distinguished by the sweet taste. Agent,

SIMON JOHNSTON,

Corner Smithfield and Fourth Streets.

Also, agent for SARG'S VIENNA GLYCERINE SOAP. au15:TTS
